

European College of Veterinary Pharmacology & Toxicology

ECVPT Cardiorenal Therapeutics Symposium for practitioners

2nd July 2023, Bruges Meeting and Convention
Centre (BMCC), Bruges, Belgium

Time	Topic	Speaker
10.00 - 10.20	Registration
10.20 - 10.30	Welcome and introduction to the day; thanks to sponsors	Chair of the symposium
10.30 - 11.00	Treatment of sub-clinical canine mitral valve disease – what is the evidence and how can patients be identified that will benefit?	Jenny Wilshaw (Royal Veterinary College, London, UK)
11.00 - 11.20	What brings about the beneficial effects of drugs in pre-clinical mitral valve disease?	Adrian Boswood (Royal Veterinary College, London, UK)
11.20 - 11.40	Break for coffee
11.40 - 12.10	Treatment of azotemic dogs with heart failure: keeping the balance	Pascale Smets (Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Ghent, Belgium)
12.10 - 12.40	New therapeutic modality to treat cardiovascular and kidney disease – SGLT-2 inhibitors. What are their potential applications to veterinary medicine	Harriet Syme (Royal Veterinary College, London, UK)
12.40 - 13.00	Round table discussion of morning speakers with Q&A from the audience	Jenny Wilshaw Adrian Boswood Pascale Smets Harriet Syme
13.00 - 14.00	Break for lunch

Pre-congress practitioners' day organised in collaboration with EAVPT2023

European College of Veterinary Pharmacology & Toxicology

Time	Topic	Speaker
14.00 - 14.40	Interactive cardiorenal cases giving examples of therapeutic/diagnostic dilemmas	Adrian Boswood Harriet Syme Astrid van Dongen Jonathan Elliott
14.40 - 15.10	Management of glomerulonephritis in dogs – how to decide on the right treatment?	Astrid van Dongen (Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Utrecht, the Netherlands)
15.10 - 15.40	Management of hypertension in cats	Dominique Paepe (Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Ghent, Belgium)
15.40 - 16.00	Break for tea
16.00 - 16.20	Is there a role for aldosterone receptor antagonists in treatment of feline hypertension?	Sarah Spencer (Royal Veterinary College, London, UK)
16.20 - 16.50	Is there a role for HIF prolyl hydroxylase inhibitors in veterinary medicine?	Jonathan Elliott (Royal Veterinary College, London, UK)
16.50 - 17.10	Round table discussion of afternoon speakers with Q&A from the audience	Astrid van Dongen Dominique Paepe Sarah Spencer Jonathan Elliott
17.10	Closing remarks of the chair of the symposium

Pre-congress practitioners' day organised in collaboration with EAVPT2023